Second, are you limiting your choices of people to those who might be less interested. Now that you have chosen a niche that has a lot of potential for future success and found a category that sells well, it's time to start brainstorming for the topic of your first book. Disclaimer: I received this Bible from the publisher, Thomas Nelson for free to read and review, through the blogger review program at BookLook Bloggers I was not required to give a favorable review only an honest review, nor was I compensated for my review.

Togetherdir. Thankyou. Well, checking out the submission guidelines of the agent's website should answer 1 and 2 fairly easily. A few people, including myself, have simply stated their own decisions about which reviews they prefer to read.
